

I beleive you should reject the petition to block local oriented services. What is the difference between satelite tv offering local programming and xm radios doing the same. I also feel threatened by this as I operate a fairly large fixed wireless business. I beleive this bill is absolutely stupid and should not even waste the time of the FCC.